

Cajun Stud

Cajun Stud (the “Game”) is a house-banked, poker-based, card game played with a standard 52-card deck of playing cards. The object of the Game is for the player to achieve a poker hand that triggers a winning event against a payable. Cajun Stud also contains several optional bonus wagers, which are won if a player’s hand achieves a predetermined winning events posted on the corresponding paytables.

Ante and Play Wagers

1. To begin the game, each player must make an Ante wager. Each player may also place an optional Pocket Bonus, Board Bonus, Lo Ball, or an All-Six wager.
2. The first four cards dealt from the shoe are to be given to the dealer and placed in the designated All Six card square.
3. Each player then receives two hole cards, face down. Each player will use the 3 community cards to form their own five card poker hands.
4. After examining their two hole cards, each player must then decide to do one of the following:
 - a. Players may choose to place a Raise wager. This wager must be 1x, 2x, or 3x their original Ante wager. After all wagers have been placed, the Player’s two cards shall be placed faced down in front of the betting area closest to the dealer.

OR

- b. Players may choose to Fold. If a player Folds they surrender their Ante wager. If the Player chooses to Fold and had previously placed an optional side wager, the player’s two cards shall be placed face down in front of the betting area closest to the Dealer OR tucked under one of the optional side wager bets. These bets will be reconciled at the completion of the hand.
